

Registration Information for Summer 2016 (Term 2167)
Degree Granting Programs in Clinical Research

The ICRE Summer Core Curriculum is offered in a hybrid format. This means that students are expected to view recorded lectures online and engage in other online course content via Course Web prior to each live session. More details regarding the requirements of each course can be found on the course syllabus.

Students will be asked for group preference and will receive their group assignment prior to the first day of class.
