Translational Science 2013: Increasing the value of your research through team science

April 17-19, 2013 ~ Omni Shoreham Hotel ~ Washington, DC

www.translationalsciencemeeting.org

Meeting Highlights

• Participate in networking opportunities that span the scientific field, including a chance to meet with key leaders and peers
• Attend plenary sessions featuring leaders in the field
• Take part in advocacy training sessions and Capitol Hill day visits with Congress
• Present or view poster presentations from administrators, researchers, and trainees
• Earn CME credits
• Tour the NIH clinical center

New for 2013

• A Grantsmanship Skills Workshop — Designed for faculty at all career stages who are preparing grant applications to the NIH, especially those at the K to R transition.
• Partnership with CR Forum — ACRT, AFMR, SCTS, and APOR will collaborate with CR Forum to host a joint plenary and reception, with special joint plenary scientific presentations from the “Top 10” scientist awardees

Featured Speakers

Dr. Christopher Austin
Dr. Austin is the newly appointed director of the National Center for Advancing Clinical and Translational Science (NCATS). He served as director of the NCATS Division of Pre-Clinical Innovation since the creation of the Center in December 2011.

Dr. Ezekiel Emanuel
Dr. Emanuel is internationally recognized for his forthright positions on medical ethics and health policy. Among many other publications, he has contributed to the Opinionator blogs in the New York Times.

Dr. Elias Zerhouni
Dr. Zerhouni is a world-renowned leader in research and a powerful voice for scientific innovation. He previously served as NIH Director, and currently is President for Global R&D at Sanofi, SA.