

INSTITUTE FOR CLINICAL RESEARCH EDUCATION

CEED

Career Education and Enhancement for Health Care Research Diversity

Esa Davis, MD, MPH, FAAFP, Director

Ginger White, Program Coordinator

Eligibility

Must be from an underrepresented population

Career Stage- must have earned a doctoral degree

- Medical Fellows, Postdoctoral Fellows, Junior Faculty

Program Details

MONTHLY SEMINARS

COURSEWORK

MENTORING

Monthly Seminars

Our monthly seminars are held on Tuesdays from 10:00am-12:00pm

Our Career Development seminars include the following: Negotiation, Promotion/tenure bootcamp, writing productivity, alumni coffee and conversation, Scholar's Work in Progress presentations, CEED Annual Book Club

You are expected to attend every seminar

Coursework

Fall 2023

- MEDEDU 2140: Scientific Writing and Presentation Skills
- CLRES 2071: Advanced Grant Writing Part

Spring 2024

- CLRES 2072: Advanced Grant Writing Part 2
- CLRES 2050: Ethics and Responsible Conduct of Research

Mentoring

Must identify faculty mentor to help create a research career development plan (you may have more than one)

Scholar and their mentor are required to meet with the CEED Director at the start of the program

Scholars are to attend Mentoring Matters interactive ½ a day workshop in the fall

Application Components

1. Scholar CV
2. Personal Statement
3. Research Proposal
4. LOS and Biosketch from Mentor
5. LOS Division Chief (or Program Director/ Department Chair/ Dean)

Application Components

Applications due
May 3, 2023 at 11:59pm!

Please visit our website for more information-
ICRE \(pitt.edu\)

Feel free to contact us!

Esa Davis

emd55@pitt.edu

Ginger White (Program Coordinator)

giw7@pitt.edu