

LGBTQIA+ RESEARCH AND OUTREACH ENDOWED FUND

is a new resource for Pitt undergraduate and graduate students.

DEADLINE FOR THE UPCOMING FUNDING CYCLE: FEB. 15.

How to find it: Apply through Pitt Fund\$ Me, where you can search on the name of the fund.

This award is for undergraduate, graduate, professional, and doctoral students across all colleges and departments at the University of Pittsburgh conducting research relating to LGBTQIA+ Studies, including, but not limited to, research projects, internships, travel to conferences/seminars, on-campus involvement, and volunteerism.

Students selected for this award are expected to submit a reflection on their experience and will also be asked to participate in a presentation on their experience.

About the fund:

The fund was begun in GSWS. Sponsorship by Pitt Queer Professionals provided crucial momentum, with the result that the fund became an endowment in 2021 and was supported enthusiastically by the Pitt community at the last Pitt Day of Giving.

Awards are expected to range from $500-$1500.
